Dear Colleague Letter published by the US Department of Education

The policies and procedures for administering ATB test have not changed, but the eligibility requirements for students have.

Students must now be enrolled in an eligible career pathway program in order to qualify for ATB.

To find out more information, see the May 22, 2015 Dear Colleague Letter published by the US Department of Education.

ATB Regulations

Regulations

The ATB regulations require accountability and reporting for the ACCUPLACER program as well as for the ATB test administrators.

All ATB tests must be administered by certified ATB test administrators¹

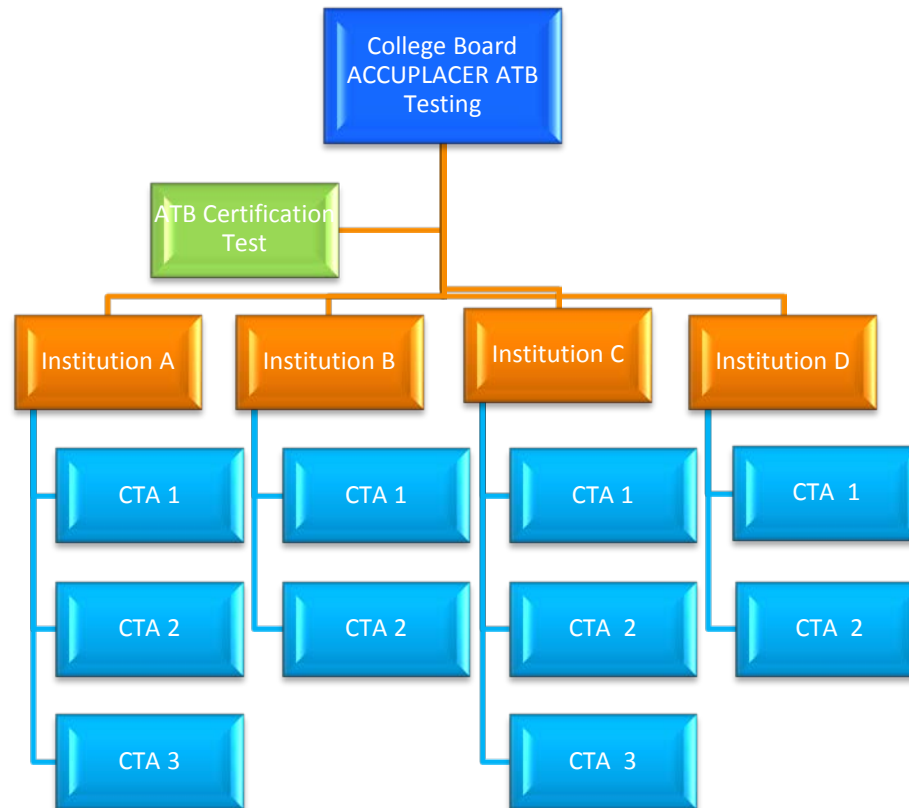

To become an ACCUPLACER certified ATB test administrator you must pass the ACCUPLACER ATB Test Administrator's Certification Test.

When you pass the Certification Test, you will be sent Proctor/Reporter login credentials for your institution's ATB Testing site under the ACCUPLACER ATB testing site.

¹Federal Register: October 29, 2010, 668.150 (b) (1)

ACCUPLACER ATB Testing Site

A College Board's ACCUPLACER ATB Testing site has been established for all ATB Testing.

ATB Testing Site Login Credentials

- Each certified ATB test administrator will have his/her unique login credentials to their ATB testing site.
- ATB Proctor/Reporter credential must always be used when administering ACCUPLACER ATB tests.
- These credentials must not be shared. Sharing of credentials will be considered a testing irregularity.
- It is strongly recommended that institutions have more than one certified ATB test administrator since it is required that a certified ATB test administrator be present at all times during an ATB testing session.

Assessment Center is a facility that²

- is located at an eligible institution that provides two-year or four-year degrees or is a postsecondary vocational institution
- is responsible for gathering and evaluating information about individual students for multiple purposes, including appropriate course placement
- is independent of the admissions and financial aid processes at the institution at which it is located
- is staffed by professionally trained personnel
- does not have as its primary purpose the administration of Ability to Benefit tests

²Federal Register: October 29, 2010, 668.142

Assessment Center

- Background questions on the certification test address these requirements.
- If your answers indicate that the assessment center does not meet these requirements, you will receive the following message on your Individual Score Report.

Institution

Based on the answers you have provided, your institution may not be eligible to administer ATB tests. Please send an email to accuplacer@collegeboard.org so that we can contact you.

Candidates for certification must provide a statement they are not currently decertified³

A background question on the certification test addresses this requirement. If your answer to this question indicates that you have been decertified, you will receive the following message on the Individual Score Report.

Decertified

You indicated that you have been decertified as an ATB test administrator. Please send an email to accuplacer@collegeboard.org so that we can contact you concerning your decertification.

At the End of the ATB Certification Test

Preview Test Question

If you are certified as an ATB Test Administrator, do you agree to follow all of the policies and procedures for administering Ability to Benefit tests as outlined in the ACCUPLACER Program Manual including that you will

- conduct all ATB testing on the official ATB testing site established for your institution
- conduct all ATB retesting on the official ATB testing site established for your institution
- not share with anyone your User Name and Password to the ACCUPLACER ATB Testing site
- check a student's ID before and after administering ATB tests
- administer the tests in a manner that ensures the security and integrity of the test
- secure the tests against disclosure or release
- immediately report to the ACCUPLACER program any test irregularities?

- Yes, I agree
- No, I do not agree

Institution must maintain a record for each student who takes ATB tests⁴

Since all ATB testing will be done on the College Board's ACCUPLACER ATB testing site that was created for your institution, all of your ATB records are available on a single site.

You can run reports of students who have tested on your ATB testing site.

⁴Federal Register: October 29, 2010, 668.151 (g)

Every 18 months, test publishers must submit to the US DOE a report of all ATB testing⁵

Test irregularities and anomalies must be reported to US Department of Education. Irregularities may include

- Not using the official ATB testing site
- Not administering ATB tests in accordance with instructions provided in Policies and Procedures for Administering Ability to Benefit Tests manual
- Sharing login credentials
- Not following the retest policy
- Not securing tests against disclosure or release

⁵Federal Register: October 29, 2010, 668.150 (b) (13)

Test publishers must decertify those who do not follow established policies and procedures⁶

- ACCUPLACER staff will monitor the activities of the ATB testing sites. If there is evidence of a test irregularity, the certified ATB test administrator will be contacted so that policies and procedures can be clarified.
- If multiple irregularities occur, the certified ATB test administrator will be investigated for decertification, and your institution could lose its ability to administer ATB tests.
- Any certified ATB test administrator who is decertified will be reported to US Department of Education.

⁶Federal Register: October 29, 2010, 668.150 (b) (4)

- full name of your institution

ATB Certification Test

An ACCUPLACER ATB Certification Test site has been created on the ACCUPLACER testing platform through which the certification test is administered.

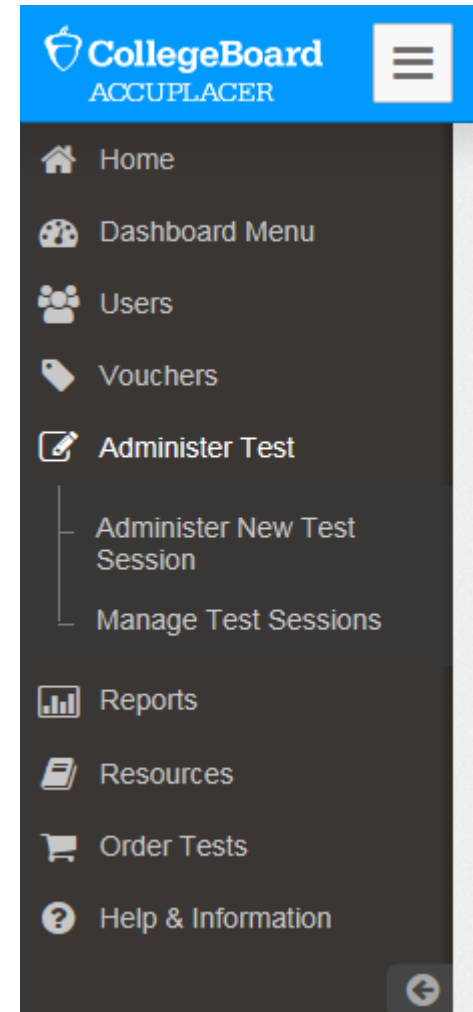

ATB Certification Test

- Once your request to take the ATB Certification Test has been received, your eligibility to take the certification test will be checked.
- If you meet the eligibility requirements, you will be sent a Proctor Username and Password that you will use to access the ATB Certification Test site.
- These login credentials are NOT to be shared with other staff members.
- DO NOT change the password. These credentials are being used by others, they are not your personal credentials.

ATB Certification Test

Log in to www.accuplacer.org using the Proctor login credentials that were provided.

Click on the Administer Test menu and select Administer New Test Session.

From the Select Branching Profile drop-down menu, select Certification Test.

The screenshot shows the ACCUPLACER Administer New Test Session interface. The top navigation bar includes the CollegeBoard ACCUPLACER logo, a menu icon, and the user profile 'ATB ATB TEST ADMINISTRATOR CERTIFICATION SITE PROCTOR'. The left sidebar contains navigation options: Home, Dashboard Menu, Users, Vouchers, Administer Test (with sub-options for Administer New Test Session and Manage Test Sessions), Reports, Resources, Order Tests, and Help & Information. The main content area is titled 'Administer New Test Session' and contains a blue informational banner with the following text: 'All ACCUPLACER tests must be administered in the presence of an authorized Proctor in a secure testing environment for the duration of the test session. POP-UP BLOCKERS MUST BE DISABLED TO ENABLE TEST ADMINISTRATION. If you are presented with the locked administrator access screen after selecting "Administer Test" and no test administration window opens on top of the locked administrator access screen, then you likely have a pop-up blocker enabled. Use the System Requirements to ensure your workstation conforms to system requirements.' Below this banner are three bullet points: ' Branching Profiles Inherited from the Institution level', ' Branching Profiles Inherited from the Group level', and ' Branching Profiles Inherited from the ACCUPLACER system'. A 'Test Unit Balance' section displays '227' for the 'SITE'. At the bottom, there is a search bar for 'Administer New Test Session' and a 'Select Branching Profile' dropdown menu. The dropdown menu is open, showing options: '-Select One-', '-Select One-', and 'Certification Test' (which is highlighted). An 'Administer Test' button is located at the bottom right of the form.

ATB Certification Test

When you begin taking the certification test, you will see the following message. If you do not use this format for your ID number, you will receive an error message.

The screenshot shows a window titled "CollegeBoard ACCUPLACER" with a close button in the top right corner. The main heading is "Student Instructions". The text inside the window provides the following instructions:

On the Student Information screen and those that follow, complete all mandatory fields, those indicated by a red asterisk (*).

For your student ID number please use your ACCUPLACER Institution ID number followed by your initials. If you do not have a middle initial, please use "N" for no middle initial.

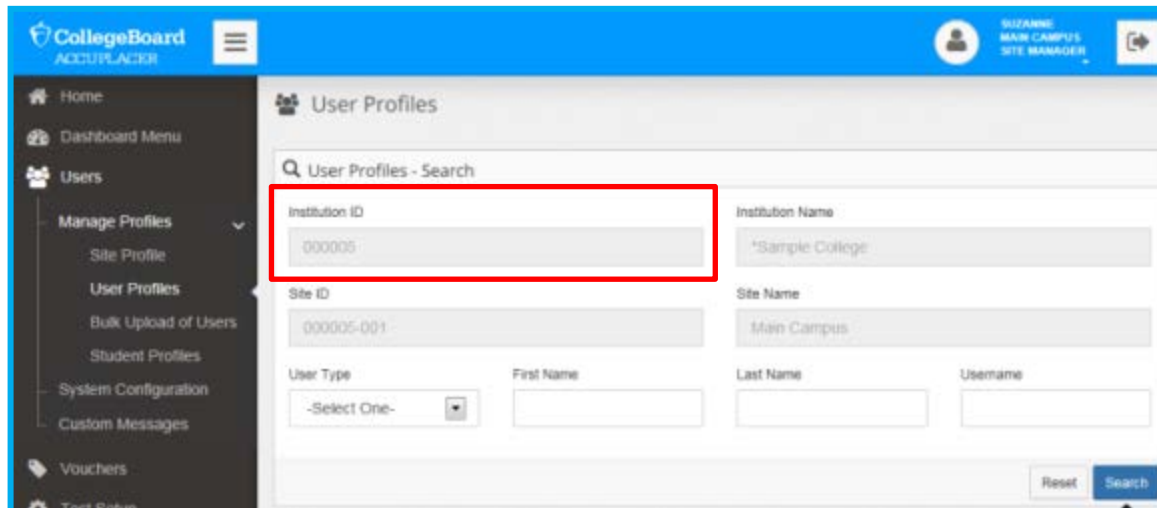

For example, if your name is William Henry Duvall and your institution account number is 000222, then you would enter 000222whd for your student ID number.

If you do not know your Institution ID number, log on to your ACCUPLACER testing account, click on the Users menu, select Manage Profiles, then Users Profiles.

If your institution does not have an ACCUPLACER testing site, use 000000 as your institution account number.

To find your Institution ID #, log into your institution's ACCUPLACER testing site and click on the Users menu. Select Manage Profiles, then select Users Profiles. A screen similar to the one below will appear.

In this example the Institution ID is 000005.

The screenshot shows the ACCUPLACER User Profiles management interface. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with options: Home, Dashboard Menu, Users, Manage Profiles (expanded), Site Profile, User Profiles, Bulk Upload of Users, Student Profiles, System Configuration, Custom Messages, and Vouchers. The main content area is titled 'User Profiles' and features a search bar labeled 'User Profiles - Search'. Below the search bar, there are several input fields: 'Institution ID' (highlighted with a red box and containing '000005'), 'Institution Name' (containing '*Sample College'), 'Site ID' (containing '000005-001'), and 'Site Name' (containing 'Main Campus'). At the bottom, there are fields for 'User Type' (a dropdown menu with '-Select One-'), 'First Name', 'Last Name', and 'Username'. A 'Reset' button and a 'Search' button are located at the bottom right of the form.

If your institution does not have an ACCUPLACER testing site, use 000000 as your institution account number.

ATB Certification Test

- At the end of testing, you will be told if you have “passed” the Certification Test.
- In order to “pass” you must answer all ten questions correctly.
- Candidates who do not pass the Certification Test can do further study and retest. No waiting period is required.

ATB Certification Test

- The Individual Score Report generated at the end of testing will serve as your “Certificate.”
- Print a copy of the report for your personal files as well as copies for any other campus offices that may need one.
- Suggestion: Create a pdf of your Individual Score Report and save it on your office computer.

ATB Testing Site Established

If you become employed at another institution, you must re-take ATB Certification Test.

Login credentials cannot be transferred to other institutions.

Please note that according to the ACCUPLACER System Software License Agreement (3(c)) that as a licensee of the ACCUPLACER system you must control the access of your authorized users and immediately revoke such access if the user ceases to be employed by the institution or is no longer appropriately authorized to access the system.

ATB Testing

- All ATB testing must be done on the College Board's ACCUPLACER ATB Testing site. If a student tests on your institution account, and it is later determined that the student needed to take the ATB tests, the student must retest on the ATB site.
- It is strongly recommended that test center personnel work with their Financial Aid office to establish a referral process so that ATB students will be identified before initial testing.

Testing Students

Procedures for Administering ATB Tests

A test is considered to be properly administered if the test administrator

- is a certified ATB test administrator
- has administered the tests in accordance with instructions provided in the Policies and Procedures for Administering Ability to Benefit Tests manual
- has followed the retest policy
- has administered the tests in a manner that ensures the integrity and security of the tests
- secures the tests against disclosure or release.

Procedures for Administering ATB Tests

- A certified ATB test administrator must be present at all times during the administration of ATB tests in order to secure the tests against disclosure or release.
- All testing must be completed on the same day, unless there is a need to accommodate a student with a documented disability.

Testing Students

- Each candidate must be asked to present at least one form of identification. The ID must include the student's name, signature and a recognizable photograph.
- Acceptable forms of identification include:
 - A current driver's license
 - A high school ID
 - A college ID
 - A current state or federal ID card
 - A current passport
 - A tribal ID card
 - A naturalization card or certificate of citizenship

Testing Students

The student's identification must be checked before the student begins testing and re-checked at the end of testing.

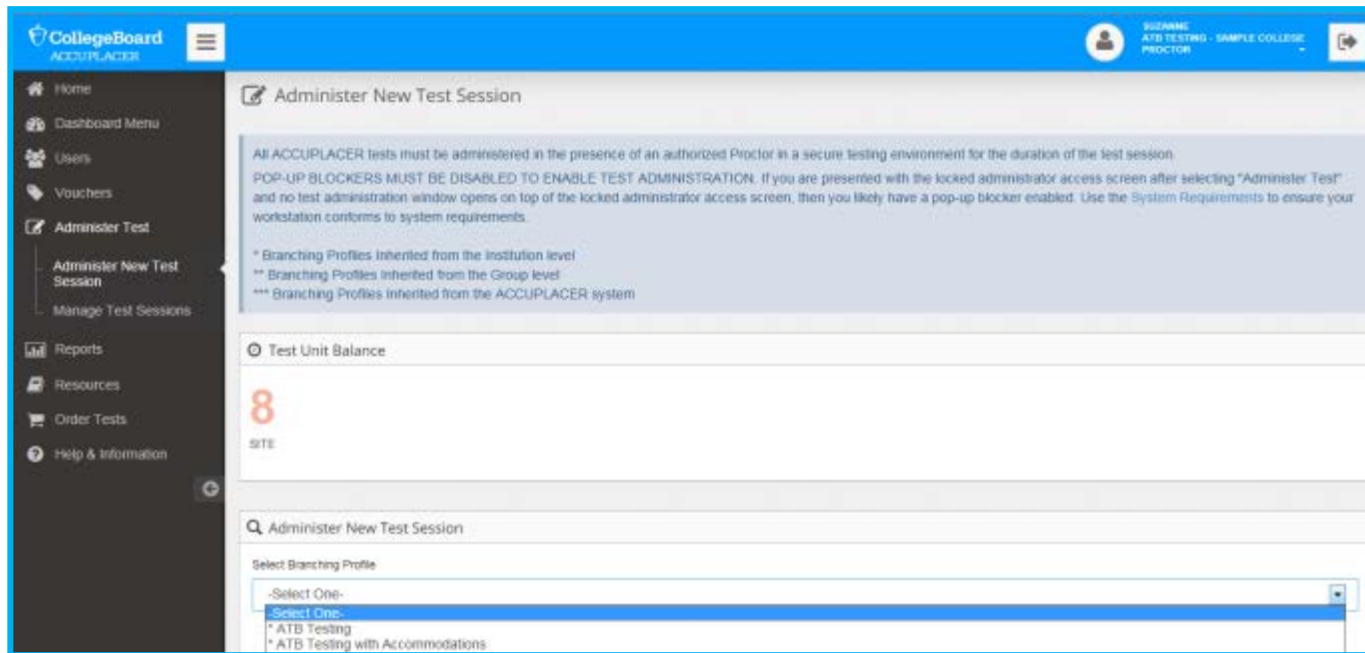

Verify that the name on the Individual Score Report matches the name on the student ID that was provided at the beginning of testing.

Testing Aids

- Use of Calculators - In Test Setting the calculator has been activated for ATB testing. Handheld calculators are not allowed unless it is a prescribed accommodation.
- Use of Dictionaries - The use of dictionaries is not permitted.
- Use of Scratch Paper - Scratch paper must be provided to students who are taking ACCUPLACER tests. The scratch paper must be collected at the end of testing and destroyed by secure means.
- Use of Personal Computers - Do not allow students to use their own computer or laptop unless there is a documented disability that requires the use of a very specific computer.

Testing Students Who Do Not Have a Disability

- Arithmetic.

Two Background Questions are asked.

This branching profile must always be used when testing students with disabilities.

Testing Students with a Disability

When ATB tests are administered to a student who requires accommodations you must report to the test publisher the nature of the disability and the accommodations that were provided.⁷

The ATB Testing with Accommodations Branching Profile has two local background questions so that this information can be collected.

The certified ATB test administrator must assist the student with answering these two background questions.

Adding Test Units to Your ATB Testing Site

Test Units

- Once your ATB testing site has been established, you must purchase ATB test units using the ACCUPLACER order form found under the Resources tab.

- Separate order forms must be used to order ATB test units. Be sure to use your ATB testing site ID number, not your regular college site number.

Test Units

Monitored your Test Unit Balance for your ATB site closely. Each time you administer an ATB test session the number of test units remaining on your site is displayed.

The screenshot displays the 'Administer New Test Session' page in the CollegeBoard ACCUPLACER system. The page features a dark sidebar with navigation options such as Home, Dashboard Menu, Users, Vouchers, Administer Test, Reports, Resources, Order Tests, and Help & Information. The main content area is titled 'Administer New Test Session' and contains a blue header with the CollegeBoard ACCUPLACER logo and a user profile for 'SUZANNE ATB TESTING - SAMPLE COLLEGE PROCTOR'. Below the balance section, there is a search bar and a dropdown menu for 'Select Branching Profile' with a 'Select One' option. At the bottom right, there is a blue 'Administer Test' button.

Test Units

If you run out of test units on your ATB testing site, you will not be able to test until additional units have been added to your site.

It is not possible to transfer test units from your institution account to your ATB testing site.
