Course Assessment

Grades will be determined through a series of objectives. There will be two exams, a midterm and a non-comprehensive final exam, one of which is There will be a series of grades determined by artwork that you submit. Each work will be evaluated according to rubrics that correspond to the assignment. However, the participant should ask his or herself the following questions: “Is the work completely finished?” and “Does the work accomplish the objective given?” before submitting the work for grading. In addition, there will be two essays which will be configured into the final average. Overall, there will be a total of 18 grades affecting your final semester average. Here is the assignment/quiz percentage breakdown:

Mid-term (Proctored Exam): 25%

Participation Assignments: 10%

Activity Assignments: 25%

Writing Assignments: 25%

Final Exam (Non-Proctored): 15%

- PROCTORED EXAM(S): All MSVCC courses must have a minimum of one and a maximum of three proctored exams. Co-Lin policy is that the proctored exam(s) equal(s) at least 25% of your final average. This course will have 1 proctored exam(s), which will total 25% of your final average. Visit the Proctored Exam Information page for more information on proctoring.

Interaction

- This course is fully asynchronous and has no set meeting times; you will have course activities and due dates throughout the term. I will substantively interact with you through regular announcements that provide class feedback and direction, individual feedback on your projects, etc.

Grading Scale

A 90 – 100

B 80 – 89

C 70 – 79

D 60 – 69

F Below 60

Late/Makeup Work

If a student chooses to submit the assignment or exam past the deadline, five points are automatically deducted from the score for that assignment/exam each day it is late. After 3 days, the assignment will not be accepted and a grade of zero (0) will be recorded.

Support Services

As a Co-Lin student, you have access to student services including advisement, counseling, tutoring, financial aid, library and other learning resources. Please visit the Student Services page for more information.

Proctored Testing

This course may require that some of the assessments be proctored. Co-Lin provides options for in- person and remote proctoring. Proctored testing may be done remotely if you have access to reliable internet and the required technology to be recorded by a virtual proctor. If you do not have access to reliable internet or do not have the ability to be recorded by the virtual proctor, there are designated computer labs on each Co-Lin campus which can be used for proctored assessments.

Visit the Proctored Exam Information page for more information on proctoring.

Accommodations

Copiah-Lincoln Community College is committed to providing equal opportunities for students with disabilities. If you are a distance learning student with a disability, you will be provided with the same type of services that would be provided to a student on campus. However, the manner in which these services are provided may differ to accommodate your needs.

If you are a student who has a disability which qualifies under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and requires accommodations, you should contact the Office of Disability Support Services on your campus. If you are not a Co-Lin student, please contact your local Disability Support Services Coordinator at your respective campus.

College Policies

Students are protected by and responsible for the policies which are detailed in the Co-Lin Student Handbook. A digital version of the Handbook is available on the Publications and Policies page.

Plagiarism/Cheating

Plagiarism is the presenting of words or ideas of others without giving proper credit. In addition to being a violation of the student code of conduct, plagiarism is both unethical and illegal. When a student puts his name on a piece of writing, the reader assumes that student is responsible for the information, wording, and organization. A writer cannot copy direct quotations without providing quotation marks and without acknowledging the source. Paraphrasing material or using an original idea that is not properly introduced is the most common type of plagiarism. The college prohibits dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism or knowingly furnishing false information to the officials or faculty of the college or their representatives. Cheating is subject to consequences stated in the instructor's syllabus and the Disciplinary Sanctions section of the Student Handbook:

1. First offense - grade of "0" for the assignment and the documents should be forwarded to the appropriate Dean/Vice President where the student will be placed on instructional/disciplinary
2. Second offense - documentation should be forwarded to the appropriate Dean/ Vice The student will be administratively withdrawn from the course for that semester in cases of a repeat offense in that course.
3. Third offense - student will be referred to the Dean of Students/Vice President for appropriate action, up to dismissal from the college.

Using an electronic device or other material without permission during an exam will be considered cheating regardless of intent. Other forms of cheating will include, but are not limited to: having information available in any non-approved form, such as papers, books, notes, materials hidden in apparel, written on self or desks, tabbing out to another computer screens, looking at other students' work, communicating with other students in any manner.

Academic Fraud

Allowing another person (paid or otherwise) to complete work for a student is considered academic fraud and will be subject to the disciplinary sanctions of the Student Handbook. Selling course material to another person, student, entity, and/or uploading to a third-party vendor is prohibited. Course materials include, but are not limited to, class notes, instructor's power points, course syllabi, tests, quizzes, labs, instruction sheets, homework, study guides, and handouts.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

CLCC acknowledges that large language model generative AI tools (ChatGPT, Dall-E 2, etc.) are readily accessible. The ethical and responsible use of AI tools can enhance student learning and productivity.

However, the use of generative AI should be used as an aid to student work, not as a replacement. The use of AI is in this course is prohibited.

Use of Generative AI Not Permitted

Students are not allowed to use AI tools on assignments in this course. The use of an AI tool is a violation of the plagiarism policy in the student code of conduct.

Course Attendance

Regular class attendance is very important to college success; therefore, students are expected to attend class unless it is absolutely necessary to be absent. Students are expected to make up all work missed due to absences. A penalty may be assessed for work not made up at the discretion of the instructor for the class missed. It is the student's responsibility to keep up with their number of absences. Students can check their current schedule in "My Pack" and the column to the right of each class will reflect how many absences the instructor has recorded for you in each class.

When you have missed at least 50% of the absences allowed in the identified course based on the chart below, you will receive an attendance warning email.

Please note that some programs/activities (listed in the Student Handbook) have special attendance requirements. Due to the nature of the subject matter taught, clinical component, and/or state/national accreditation you may have already exceeded your allowed absences. Check with your advisor/instructor.

LENGTH OF COURSES	NUMBER OF ABSENCES ALLOWED	CUT FROM CLASS ON THIS ABSENCE
15 Week Course	2	3 RD
4 or 8 week course	1	2 ND

If you are cut out of a course for excessive absences, you may complete a Request for Reinstatement within seven days of the cut out. Reinstatements are evaluated based on the amount of missing work and the student's ability to successfully complete the course.

Any course that is dropped prior to the official withdrawal date will constitute a "W". The grade "W" is not used in computing grade point average. Please note that withdrawing from a course does not remove your responsibility to pay for the course. If you are receiving any type of financial aid, please contact your advisor, Enrollment Services, and/or the Financial Aid Office before completing the withdrawal form.

Title IX Syllabus Statement

Co-Lin is committed to complying with Title IX, a federal law that prohibits discrimination, including violence and harassment, based on sex. This means that Co-Lin's educational programs and activities must be free from sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and other forms of sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know has experienced sex discrimination, sexual violence and/or harassment by any member of the Co-Lin community, you are encouraged to report the conduct to Co-Lin's Title IX Coordinator at 601-643-8411 or by e-mail to compliance@colin.edu.

As the instructor for this course, I have a mandatory duty to report to the college any information I receive about possible sexual misconduct. This includes information shared in class discussions or assignments, as well as information shared in conversations outside class. The purpose of reporting is to allow Co-Lin to take steps to ensure a safe learning environment for all. Co-Lin also has confidential resources available, who can provide assistance to those who have experienced sexual misconduct without triggering a mandatory reporting duty.

Online Etiquette

It is important to build a class climate that is welcoming and safe for everyone. Please display respect for everyone in the class. You should avoid any negative language that may exclude members of our campus and community.

- Humor and sarcasm don't translate very well when using email or online. Be careful. I will delete any posting that I believe is inappropriate.
- Keep in mind that there is a real, live human being with feelings on the other end of your email or discussion posting—if you were sitting in front of that person, would you say to his/her face what you are saying in your email or discussion posting? Remember that your words are written in an email or discussion posting, and you cannot take them back.
- Avoid offensive language, especially comments that might be construed as racist or
- Remember that the law still applies in cyberspace. Do not commit illegal acts online, such as libeling or slandering others, and do not joke about committing illegal acts.
- Do not post a message more than once.
- Generally speaking, avoid putting words into full Online, all-caps is considered SHOUTING.
- If you are following up a previous message or posting, summarize that message or Read existing follow-up postings and do not repeat what has already been written.
- Reveal only information that you are comfortable.
