Course Calendar and Due Dates

All course due dates are posted in the Course Calendar. Always use the Calendar in Modules, and do not rely on the Canvas app calendar or To-Do List.

Module Lecture Quizzes

Each week you will be required to complete a module lecture quiz on the material covered that week. Each lecture quiz is worth a total of 50 points. The lecture quiz questions will be True or False, Matching, or Short Answer. Links to access each quiz can be found at the bottom of each module overview.

Module Lab Quizzes

Each week you will be required to complete a module lab quiz on the material covered in that week. These lab quizzes will contain a differing number of questions, but each of these quizzes will be worth 25 points. The lab quiz questions will be True or False, Matching, or Short Answer. Links to access each quiz can be found at the bottom of each module overview.

Writing Assignments

Each week you will be required to complete a module writing assignment. These assignments will be 1 or 2 open-ended questions relevant to the material covered that week. Each of these writing assignments is worth 10 points. Links to access each writing assignment can be found at the bottom of each module overview.

Late Assignments

Accepting late assignments or allowing make-up work is at the discretion of the instructor. For this class, you may turn in late assignments but submission of the assignment early is always preferred. However, for each day your assignment is late, a letter grade point deduction will be applied. If you have extenuating circumstances, contact your instructor to discuss special arrangements.

Attendance Policy

It is the intent of the Itawamba Community College Board of Trustees that opportunities for student success and the development of personal responsibility be a high priority for the College. One of the key factors in this endeavor is class attendance. In keeping with this intent, Itawamba Community College's faculty maintain attendance records for all classes offered by the College. It is the student's responsibility to attend class.

Online Class Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes and complete all coursework prescribed by the instructor. For online classes, submission of module assignments constitutes attendance. Attendance is counted from the first scheduled class meeting following enrollment. If a student is absent more than 15 percent of the class time (3 absences), he/she will be dropped from the class. It is the student's responsibility to monitor his/her class attendance to avoid being dropped from class.

All Classes - Class Reinstatement

A student who has been dropped from class because of excessive absences may request reinstatement to the instructor prior to the next scheduled meeting or assignment due date after the student has been notified of the drop. If the instructor denies admission, the student may appeal to the Dean of eLearning Instruction, or Vice President of Instructional Services, within 24 hours following the request to the instructor.

All Classes - Appeals

Students who are not readmitted to class may appeal the decision to the Vice President of Instructional Services who will convene a committee to hear the appeal if the appeal is not otherwise resolved. The appeal must be made in writing to the appropriate dean or Vice President of Instructional Services within two school days following denial of readmission. The appeal must include documentation that absences resulted from by an emergency or an extenuating circumstance. The decision of the committee may be appealed to the President of the College whose decision will be final.

Supportive Services

Itawamba Community College's Office of Supportive Services provides services to individuals who are members of special populations. Under the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act of 1998, special populations include

- Individuals with disabilities;
- Individuals from economically disadvantaged families, including foster children;
- Individuals preparing for nontraditional training and employment;
- Single parents (teens and adults), including single pregnant females;
- Displaced homemakers; and
- Individuals with barriers to educational achievement, including individuals with limited English proficiency.

The Office of Supportive Services coordinators serve as liaisons between instructors, students and school officials; facilitate student learning and assist students with the transition from school to work.

Americans with Disabilities Act

In accordance with section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), a student with a documented disability may apply to the Office of Supportive and Disability Services for accommodations. Assistance and information on the Fulton Campus may be obtained in the Student Services Building (662.862.8173) or on the Tupelo Campus, Student Support Building (662.620.5314).

ICC is committed to complying with Title IX, a federal law that prohibits discrimination, including violence and harassment, based on sex. This means that ICC's educational programs and activities must be free from sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and other forms of sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know has experienced sex discrimination, sexual violence and/or harassment by any member of the college community, you are encouraged to report the conduct to ICC's Title IX Coordinator at 662.862.8271 or by e-mail to TitleIXCoordinator@iccms.edu.

As the instructor for this course, I have a mandatory duty to report to the college any information I receive about possible sexual misconduct. This includes information shared in class discussions or assignments, as well as information shared in conversations outside class. The purpose of reporting is to allow ICC to take steps to ensure a safe learning environment for all.
