Course Description

This course is designed to provide an understanding and appreciation of the visual arts.

Objectives

Students will cover a variety of topics including art theory, art media and art history. Art Theory includes the elements of art and the principles of design. The art media includes drawing, painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture, site specific art, architecture, crafts and design. The art history covers the art produced from prehistoric times to the 21st century.

Instructional Techniques

The material for the course will be presented through video quizzes based on the content of the book. The class is paced by completion of weekly assignments. This class will use ebooks that can be accessed through the Canvas course.

Outcome Competencies

Students will understand the relationship between culture and the visual arts. They will be able to recognize great works of art as well as the style of the artist that produced them. Students will understand and be able to use basic art terminology in written assignments. They will also be able to identify different art media.

Methods of Evaluation

Each chapter will have a homework assignments based on the reading for that chapter as well as a quiz on the material covered. There will also be two proctored tests during the semester. These will be the midterm and the final.

Attendance

Attendance will be determined by completion of a weekly quiz. A student will be withdrawn from the course after 3 absences.

Grading

This course will use a ten point grading scale: 90-100: A, 80-89: B, 70-79: C, 60-69: D, 59 and below: F. Video quiz grades will count as 50% of the final grade. The other 50% of the final grade will be derived from the mid term (25%) and the final (25%).

Academic Honesty

MSVCC Academic Honesty Policy

A hallmark of any profession is integrity and honesty. Academic honesty is expected of all students; therefore, each student is expected to accomplish his/her own work. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, deceptive acts such as the following:

- a. plagiarizing from any source
- b. cheating in any manner on tests, papers, reports, etc.
- c. turning in work as their own when, in fact, it was not their work
- d. improperly using technology
- e. stealing, buying, or selling course materials
- f. either impersonating another student during a test or having another person assume ones identity during a test
- g. deliberately conveying false or misleading information

When academic misconduct has occurred, the instructor has the responsibility of assigning an appropriate penalty in accordance with the instructor's institutional policy. This may include failure of the assignment, failure of the course, or dismissal from the institution.

Testing

Each video lecture contains quiz questions that are graded.

The midterm and the final exam will be proctored. These proctored tests can be taken at any community college in the state. Students wishing to take their proctored exams at Jones County Junior College should request an exam time by going to SmarterProctoring. This PDF: http://www.jcjc.edu/elearning/docs/schedule\_proctored\_exam.pdf explains how to use the SmarterProctoring site. Requests should be made 2 business days in advance. Students will receive an email confirmation within 2 business days from the proctor.
