ACADEMIC HONESTY

MSVCC Academic Honesty Policy

A hallmark of any profession is integrity and honesty. Academic honesty is expected of all students; therefore, each student is expected to accomplish his/her own work. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, deceptive acts such as the following:

1. plagiarizing from any source
2. cheating in any manner on test, paper, reports, etc.
3. turning in work as their own when, in fact, it was not their work
4. improperly using technology
5. stealing, buying, or selling course materials
6. either impersonating another student during a test or having another person

assume ones identity during a test

7. deliberately conveying false or misleading information

When academic misconduct has occurred, the instructor has the responsibility of assigning an appropriate penalty in accordance with the instructor's institutional policy. This may include failure of the assignment, failure of the course, or dismissal from the institution.

TESTING

- Online quizzes will be given at the end of each chapter. Once the quiz is opened, the student will have 50 minutes to complete it. The book may be used for chapter quizzes.
- Students must take two proctored exams. A midterm proctored exam and a final exam. Students will make an appointment for their exams via the Smarter Proctoring Program on the Canvas website. No books or notes can be used in the proctored exams.

- Identification is needed for the Proctored exams.
