ACADEMIC HONESTY

MSVCC Academic Honesty Policy

A hallmark of any profession is integrity and honesty. Academic honesty is expected of all students; therefore, each student is expected to accomplish his/her own work. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, deceptive acts such as the following:

1. plagiarizing from any source
2. cheating in any manner on test, paper, reports, etc.
3. turning in work as their own when, in fact, it was not their work
4. improperly using technology
5. stealing, buying, or selling course materials
6. either impersonating another student during a test or having another person

assume ones identity during a test

7. deliberately conveying false or misleading information

When academic misconduct has occurred, the instructor has the responsibility of assigning an appropriate penalty in accordance with the instructor's institutional policy. This may include failure of the assignment, failure of the course, or dismissal from the institution.

TESTING

- Online quizzes will be given at the end of each chapter. Once the quiz is opened, the student will have 50 minutes to complete it. The book may be used for chapter quizzes.
- Students must take one proctored exam. *Identification is needed for the Proctored exams.

The Board of Trustees of Mississippi Delta Community College has adopted a policy that assures that no person in the United States shall, on the basis of age, race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or veteran status be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any education program or activity of the college or in its employment practices.

Harassment is also a form of unlawful discrimination as well as disrespectful behavior, which will not be tolerated. Any discrimination or harassment of a member of the college community by another member of the college community is a violation of this policy. Members of the college community are expected to treat each other with mutual respect.

Further, this applies to any educational or employment opportunity associated with Mississippi Delta Community College. This policy is extended to qualified persons with disabilities and to all programs and activities of the college.

The above described policy was adopted in response to the regulations of Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Pregnancy Discrimination Act of 1978, and other applicable Federal and State Acts.

Notice of Non-discrimination Statement
