ACADEMIC HONESTY: A hallmark of any profession is integrity and honesty. Academic honesty is expected of all students; therefore, each student is expected to accomplish his/her own work. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, deceptive acts such as the following:

- a. plagiarizing from any source
- b. cheating in any manner on tests, papers, reports, etc.
- c. turning in work as their own when, in fact, it was not their work
- d. improperly using technology
- e. stealing, buying, or selling course materials
- f. either impersonating another student during a test or having another person assume one's identity during a test.
- g. deliberately conveying false or misleading information

If student is caught, dismissal from the class and a letter grade of "F" will be given.

TESTING: The students are expected to complete all the chapter tests by the dates specified. One test will be proctored. The student will need to follow the instructions in Canvas under "proctoring" to schedule the test. Students who are not in attendance at Southwest may schedule the test at any approved testing site.

PREREQUISITES: There are no prerequisites for this course.
