

Basic Leadership

AMR 1123

This course will introduce students to the basics of leadership required of military leaders at all levels. It is not limited to those seeking a career in the military. While not limited to persons interested in a military career it stresses leadership training using a military model.

This class will focus on individual skills such as need for trust as a leader, understanding the definition of army leadership, the “Attributes and Competencies” of Army Leadership, rank structure, military courtesies, the Army Values, introduction to problem solving and decision making, the purpose of the military services, basic map reading, basic compass use and Warrior Ethos.

The instructor will use conventional methods of instruction as needed in order to clarify and demonstrate certain qualities required of leaders.

Disability Statement

Procedures for Acquiring Accommodations & Disability Support Services

Each student who wishes to be served by Disability Support Services must:

- self-identify by contacting the Disability Support Services Office in a timely manner to request accommodations for the current semester
- complete the DSS application
- provide documentation of the disability or disabilities
- request accommodations each semester

It is recommended that you request accommodations prior to the beginning of the semester to ensure that you receive your accommodations in a timely manner, as some accommodations such as interpreters, special books, or equipment take more time to secure.

SMCC administrators and faculty cannot approve or provide accommodations without this letter.

Disability Support Services is a non-fee generating program designed to meet the unique needs of SMCC students with disabilities. Reasonable accommodations are offered in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). You can download the DSS forms and find more information at www.smcc.edu/index.php/dss.

Mrs. Rhonda Gibson is our Director of Disability Support Services and her office is located in room 129, located on the first floor of Kenna Hall in Student Services. To make an appointment with Mrs. Gibson, please call 601-276-3885 or email her at rgibson@smcc.edu
